... I picked a bowl of fresh sugar snap peas and sunberries. The peas were for my lunch. The sunberries are for the freezer.

... I checked on my ripening tomatoes.

... I plan to do a little more spinning.

... I'm going to try on and rip back the sock I've been working on.

... Abby and I will go adventuring for smooth rocks.

... I'm going to start cutting for a new quilt top.

... I'll contemplate reworking the section of sock I've just ripped out but will probably put it off until tomorrow.

... I should really put in a load of laundry.

... I might try making pasta from scratch.

What are you up to?
