

Today was garbage day so as soon as I was dressed I ran outside to move our garbage bin down to the curb ... and then I ran back inside to grab my camera because the world outside was all pearlescent fog and dew and hazy sunshine and I thought my sweet peas looked particularly lovely.

