

Maisie and I learned something important yesterday: I can use my sewing machine if Maisie is sleeping in the Moby wrap. Of course I can't use the iron so what I can accomplish is limited but it does mean I can do a little sewing if I prep things before hand or just want to mock something up.